FOR EVERYTHING THERE IS A SEASON,

AND A TIME FOR EVERY MATTER

UNDER HEAVEN

A TIME TO BREAK DOWN

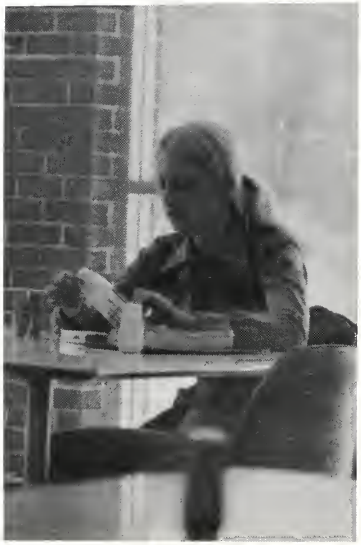
AND A TIME TO BUILD UP

A TIME TO WEEP

AND A TIME TO LAUGH

A TIME TO MOURN

AND A TIME TO DANCE



A TIME TO KEEP SILENCE AND A TIME TO SPEAK

A TIME TO LOVE AND A TIME TO HATE

DEDICATED TO

CATHERINE SINGER

Mrs. Catherine Faulkner Singer will retire this year after serving 17 years as Director of Alumni Affairs at Union College. She began her present duties in August of 1961. In 1969, Mrs. Singer received the Alumni Association's Distinguished Service Award. She was organizer and faculty advisor of Gamma Beta Phi national honorary society on campus from 1966 to 1976. She is a charter member of Iota Sigma Nu honorary society, as well as of the Beta Chi Alpha.

For 13 years Mrs. Singer has been secretary of the publications and communications committee. In 1976, she was named secretary of the community advisory council for the 100th Anniversary celebration.

Mrs. Singer was honored at the 1978 KEA reception in Louisville and at the 1978 Homecoming Banquet held at Union.

Mrs. Singer is listed in "Who's Who in American Women," Who's Who in the South and Southwest," and "Who's Who in American College and University Administrators." She has belonged to the Federation of Women's Clubs, the American Alumni Council and the Union College Women's Club.

TO YOU, MRS. SINGER, WE HUMBLY AND PROUDLY DEDICATE THE 1978 STESPEAN WITH THANKS!

STUDENT

CENTER BOARD

Nothing to do on a Friday night? Why not check out an activity planned and implemented by your Student Center Board. They organize and present most of the activities on campus, like the Jericho Harp concert or the Kentucky Tour to Frankfort. They also were responsible for having a movie presented on a regular basis, and the Halloween, Christmas, Valentine's Day and End of the Semester Dances, in addition to various other dances. Remember how cold it was in January? The SCB provided hot chocolate and cookies to try to make the weather a little more bearable. The Student Center Board meets on a weekly basis, and can be joined by invitation from its membership. Members shown are: Ted Gemmell, Advisor; Janet Rose; Jakki Staggs; Bob Milone; Donna Dobo; Pat Danridge; Pete McCoy; Steve Marshall; George Haslam.

STUDENT SENATE

The Student Senate exists to encourage participation in student government while working to achieve cooperation between the administration and the student body. Standing-Becky Miller; Vicki Couch; Katy Lu Robbins; Miss Mary Alice Lay, advisor.

Sports

BASKETBALL

An explosive offensive attack led the men's basketball team to a fine 17-11 record. Mike Sammons made the All-KIAC team for the fourth year in a row. Durkee Davidson and Fred Jones also made the All-Conference team. Coach Pete Moore was voted Coach of the Year in NAIA District 32. Most pleasing to the Bulldogs was the play of freshmen Tony Bailey, Mike Pfeffer, Bert Gregory, and Johnny Delpont. Their poise was unmatched by any freshmen they faced on the court.

The Bulldogs won games this year with a tremendous 53.1% shooting average and by out rebounding their opponents. They averaged 88 points a game and topped the century mark five times.

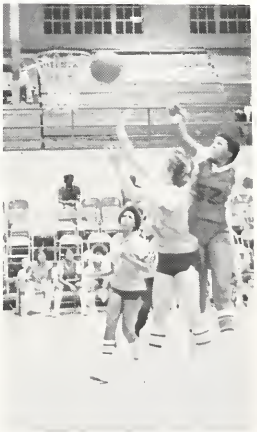
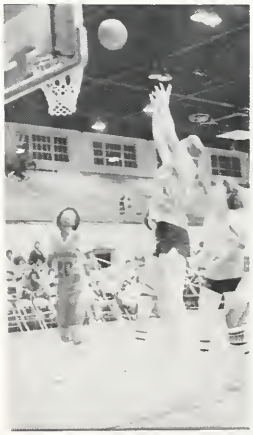
CHEERLEADERS

Who looked great, sold candy and basketball programs, sponsored a dance, and arranged transportation to select away basketball games? Union's cheerleaders, who else? Della Wagner, Stella Wagner, Pam Walker, Pam McGowen, Nanette Cox, Laura Yinger, Melanie Shaw, and Dodie Hale made up the squad, who in addition to leading Bulldog supporters and performing their classroom duties, raised enough money to purchase new uniforms. They were the first to celebrate victory as well as offer support in times of defeat.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

A year ago, you couldn't find anyone who would talk about the Lady Bulldogs' basketball record, but this year their praises are heard around the campus. Compiling eleven wins against seven losses and drawing larger crowds for each home game, the Cedric Atkins coached team rang up an enviable record in their first full year of competition. Tammy Valentine led the team with an average of 18.5 points per game. Tracy Giles led the Lady Bulldogs in field goal shooting with 55 per cent from the field while averaging 15 rebounds a game. She was also chosen as a member of the All-Tournament Team at the Sue Bennett Invitational Tournament in March. Theresa McMonagle sparked the team with her razzle dazzle play and earned a berth on the State KWIC All-Star First Team. Becky Miller improved throughout the season and scored a season high of 24 points in one game; Isabell Spriggs sparkled as the floor general from her guard position and Barb Fleming remained a standout on the backboards. The Lady Bulldogs closed out the season by defeating Berea 69-49 in the state tournament before falling to the eventual State Champion, Kentucky State, by eighteen points. Look out next year--the Union gals will be back in force!! Team members are: Rose Brooks, manager; Theresa McMonagle; Isabell Spriggs; Tammy Valentine; Kim Schoerlucke; Terri Kriviski; Joyce Bain; Arnetta Atkins; Tracy Giles, Sharon Cornett; Debbie Helton; Barb Fleming; Becky Miller; Rhonda Tyler, manager.





GIRL S' VOLLEYBALL

How can a 0-6 season be successful? It is if an inexperienced team shows enthusiasm and improvement and looks forward to winning seasons ahead Veteran Barb Fleming led the Bulldog attack which threatened opponents but fell short of the win column. Team members are: Kneeling--Isabell Spriggs, manager; Rhonda Tyler, manager. Standing-Mildred Hacker, coach; Kim Jufer; Kim Schoerlucke; Debbie Helton; Theresa McMonagle; Barb Fleming; Pat Brodbeck; Dena Newman; Terri Kriviski; Debbie Ellis; Ron Harrison, assistant coach.

SWIM TEAM

The Union College Swim Team suffered many defeats this year, but they had a bulldog attitude and they kept trying. Captain Dave Pease led the team which was composed of six first-year swimmers and three returning lettermen. Although Coach Laura White and Assistant Coach Pete McCoy had no previous coaching experience, they did an excellent job turning tadpoles into Bullfrogs. Pictured at left are: Seated - Carol Pfister; Dena Newman; Aaron Works; Terri Kriviski; JoAnn Davis; Laura White, Coach. Standing-Marilyn Goldblatt, Manager; Dave Pease; Steve Krivinski; Thom Thompson; Bob Beck; Tom Urschel.

GOLF

From the rolling hills of Indian Springs to the Bluegrass, the Bulldog golfers swung their way to a disappointing 6-19 season. Jeff Tingle led the team with an average stroke total of 85. Other team members were Danny Hinkle, Tom Lawson, Tony Auzenne, and Butch Grubb.

TENNIS

The tennis team rebuilding from a winless 1977 season provided stiff competition for other KIAC teams but finished the season with only a 2-6 record. Charlie Yazell held down the number one position of the team coached by Graduate Assistant Steve Jones. Theresa Foley earned a varsity berth to make a coed team. Others included John Logan, Mike Goss, Ron Harrison, Tony Auzenne, and Pete Fougner.

SOCCER

In line with booming popularity nationwide, soccer continues to grow at Union. More than 25 men played seriously this year as the Soccer Club competed statewide in the Kentucky Intercollegiate Soccer Association. Captains Pete McCoy and Dave Ditillio led the fall season, with Ditillio receiving All-KIAC honors. Consciously building for official sport status in the future, the Bulldogs developed new skills this spring under volunteer coach Ed Raquet and won their division in the Berea Indoor Tournament. Soccer at Union draws on many segments of the student body, including foreign students, high-school players from the Northeast, people not previously involved in athletics, and out-of-season athletes in other sports. It has become the major fall spectator sport for Union students. Special thanks go to Dr Jean Shelton of Dallas, Texas, the founder and patron; Kenneth C. Winter, coach; Dr. Moore, Dr. Rose and other faculty; Rita Bryan, manager; and many students all of whom faithfully supported them. Team members are: Seated-Mohammed Hadai, Dave Ditillio Jim Schilt Ben Box, Tabeekh Basoom. Standing-Ed Raquet, assistant coach, David Pease, Danny Burns, Tommy Grimes, Yu-Shia Jao, Floyd Mack, Tom Urschel, Masoud Teimory, Mark Dietrich, Mohmoud Zarie, Ken Winter, coach, Mehrad Bidarian. Absent from picture: Victor Morris, Joseph Gray, Bob Milone, Pete Mccoy, Rick Preston, Mark Miller, Mike Liddicoat.

BASEBALL

The Union Bulldogs, KIAC and NAIA District 32 champs, finished the 1978 season with a record of 20 and 15. Coach Larry Inkster was again named NAIA Coach of the Year for his contribution in putting Union's baseball team on top. The District NAIA All-Star team included Earl Grover, Steve Johnson, Scott Martin, and Bear Steele. Scott Martin earned the Howard Rose MVP trophy for his 8-1 record, and no-hit performance Bear Steele was chosen as baseball's nominee for "Athlete of the Year" for his leadership and stellar play. Team members are: Row 1-Rick Hill; Ed Milano; Steve Johnson; Clark Thompson; Mark West; Earl Grover; Larry Inkster, Coach. Row 2-Barkley Parsley; Bob Angstadt; Mark Cranin; Dave Smallwood; Jeff Walter. Row 3-Thom Thompson Bear Steele; Tom Johnson; Scott Martin; Oscar Goins; Fred Mossbrucker; Joe Pronchick, Manager; Rob Cromin; Paul Sizemore; Wayne Bruner; Glenn Proffit; Harry Davis; Mike Cox, Manager.

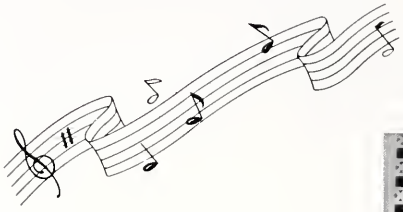
STAGE COMPANY

Union's Stage Company, a group of students who audition annually for the six available positions, closed another successful season in 1977-78. This year the actors performed before K.E.A., the local Kiwanis club, and to a Homecoming audience, as well as others throughout the year. This year's routine included "Charlie's Angels", "The Diary of Adam and Eve", and a variation of "Little Red Riding Hood." Members shown left are: Randy Pence, Shelley Howard, Steve Marshall, Cheryl Alvis, Pete Fougner.

CHILDREN'S THEATRE

Kids of all ages were entertained by the 1977-78's Children's Theatre. "Androcles and the Lion" was presented to schools all over Southeastern Kentucky, as well as in special programs for groups like the Boy Scouts. Members of this second season's company were; seated - Randy Pence, Glenn Nichols, Standing - Beve Carr, Reva Abner, Kris Epley.

MUSIC



The Music Department displayed its many talents by producing young talented musicians in concert. At top is Will Miracle playing the violin during the "All-Bach Concert". Others on the program were Gordon Marigold, organ, and Gayna Akillian, alto. At right: The Chamber Singers is a new singing group at the college. It is a selected group chosen from the choir consisting of: Kris Epley, Jackie Sellards, Sharon Griffith, Theresa Turner, Janet Rose, Andelys Wood, Aaron Works, Roger Hurt, Rudie Thomsen, John Svien, Allen Green, Victor Morris, and Gayna Akillian, conductor. The Chamber Singers performed in a Christmas and Spring Concert as did the Choir. The Choir has 18 members who are: Victor Morris, Allen Green, Charlie Akins, John Svien, Roger Hurt, Rudie Thomsen, Don Jones, Sharon Griffith, Jackie Sellards, Rich Lockett, Aaron Works, Kris Epley, Andelys Wood, Janet Rose, Theresa Turner, Debbie Bill, Sandy Hash, Emmie Taylor, and Gayna Akillian, conductor.

CABARET '78

Shelley Howard and

Cheryl Alvis as MC's.

The lights dim. An electric feeling runs through the group of people. Spotlights center upon two attractive young ladies on either side of the stage, and Cabaret 1978 has begun. The audience of this year's Cabaret saw a variety of entertainment from a group of relatively well-known and familiar people. Despite this familiarity this entertainment extravaganza was one of the most outstanding exhibitions of Union College talent presented this year. Cheryl Alvis and Shelley Howard graced the stage with a good job of emceeing as well as individual performances. The Wagner twins were a refreshing set of new faces. Randy Pence broke the musical train with a dramatic monologue. Jackie Sellards' clear, high voice was beautiful in her two solos, and in the trio with Frank Thatcher and Victor Morris. Arnie Bradway performed magic tricks with assistants Pete McCoy, Donna Dobo, Reva Abner. The highlight of the evening was the return visit of alumnus Adelaide Parsons. Many memories of past years entered the minds of the audience.

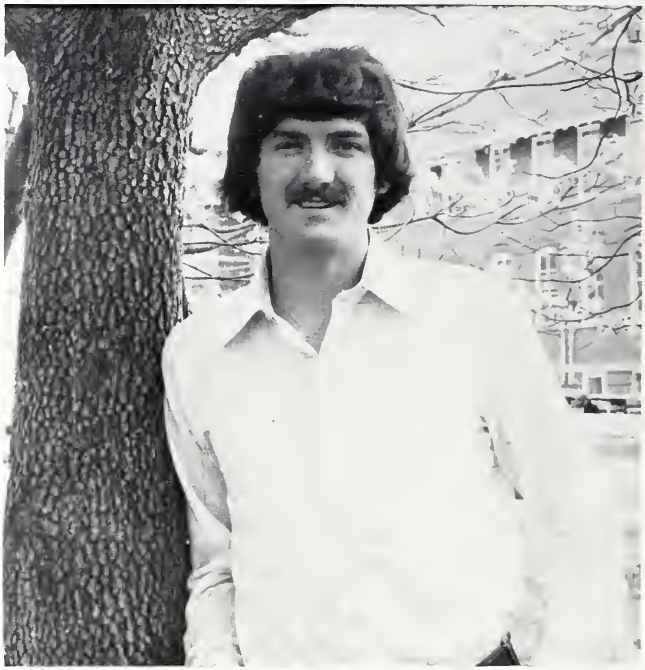
MR. & MISS UNION



Mr. Union of 1977-78 is Mile Sammons, a Physical Education and Health major from Hazard, Kentucky. His other honors include Athlete of the Year for both 1974-75 and 1977-78, Basketball Player of the Year, every year since 1974 the Danny Drinkard Award for 1977, and he was All-Conference, All-District four years consecutively. He is also the second leading scorer in the history of Union College basketball.

Susan Swisshelm, a social work major from New Carlisle, Ohio is the 1977-78 Homecoming Queen for Union College. Some of the further accomplishments of Miss Swisshelm include being this year's secretary for both the Student Senate and Senior Class, along with membership in Gamma Beta Phi. Her future plans involve work in a social service agency for one year, then attending Kent School of Social Work for her masters.
